

Anna Bronson

• annabee345@gmail.com • LinkedIn • dataworld360.com •

Summary of Qualifications

Results-oriented individual with strong Business Intelligence and Analytics background with knowledge of SQL, Python, PowerBi, Statistics, Machine Learning, and years of experience working in a cross-function team. Seeking to utilize hands-on machine learning and data-driven experience as a Data Analyst.

Education

Washington State University and NWIRC, Everett, WA
Accredited Certificate - Data Analytics Bootcamp

Feb 2022 - July 2022

Edmonds Community College, Lynnwood, WA
AA - Network Security and Digital Forensics

Jan 2015 – Jun 2017

University of Rijeka, Croatia
BA - Education

Technical Skills

Languages: SQL, Python,

Database Technologies: My SQ, SSMS

Analytics / Visualization Tools: Tableau, Power BI, MS Excel, MS Access, Orange, DB Browser, Novicat

Cloud Technologies: CitrixCloud, Azure

Experience: Database development, Database design, SQL Server, Crystal reports

Professional Experience

- 4+ years' experience as an analyst in business, IT, and financial role
- 8+ years' experience developing reports and creating requirements documents, and process flows
- Experience using SQL, Excel (including Pivot Tables, array functions, Power Pivots, etc)
- Experience building automation for reporting
- Experience working extensively in large scale data bases
- Experience using your understanding of and modeling concepts, and building new data tables, reports
- Experience using analytical, computer, statistical and quantitative problem-solving skills
- Experience using oral and written presentation skills to lead group discussions and explain complex solutions

Employment

Premiera Blue Cross (Apex Systems), Mountlake Terrace, WA

Business Analyst/IT Analyst (2019-2021)

Managed and supported IT Desktop team projects on providing technical support across the company when necessary.

- Identified unnecessary costs in shipping, saving the company 8K+.
- Worked across IT department and product business units to build out reports and infrastructure in Excel and SQL and to link and prepare users for multiple data sources.
- Collaborated with and garnered feedback from operation manager and analysts, and documented user data.
- Provide application support to clients, created application test plans, and conducted weekly reports on the progress of the projects.
- Modify the business reports and documentation to reflect changes to practices and software updates.
- Received, cleaned, and prepped data from cleaned using Excel.

Edmonds Community Collage

Business/IT Analyst (2017-2019)

Delivered high-quality, end-to-end CAC website management and desktop support to managers, staff, students, and other clients at Edmonds Community College. Responsible for analyzing operations and developing strategies to increase efficiency, and effectiveness, streamline it process and guide implementation of the best solutions.

- Slashed costs and reduced labor time and paper use by pioneering an innovative database and ensuring the effective tracking of a variety of recurring events for 5K+ students attending college events.
- Automated processing of billions of rows of data from Students Surveys into real-time reporting.
- Minimized technical problems and defects through regular technology updates and system monitoring.
- Assisted with system and support status reporting.

Sellen Construction, Seattle, WA

Forensic Accountant (2007 – 2017)

Planned and performed a vast number of detailed audits and presented findings to leadership, including security reviews on internal applications and billing substantiations submitted by subcontractors.

- Supported the Development Office finance team with revenue and expense forecasting.
- Develop complex reports using Access and Excel to examine auditing reports and save time on payroll auditing.
- Streamlined the audit process through the design of a cheat sheet and advanced Excel forms/formulas.
- Guaranteed up-to-date, accurate records of audit and compliance findings and observations, management responses, response due dates, and corrective actions plans.
- Ensured the timely payment of approved subcontractor invoices by reviewing contracts and compliances.